To

Mary Ann

Mary Ann was a friendly, well-liked student at C. H. S. She participated in many activities and always did her job well. Her smiling face and warm personality is sadly missed by all and will never be forgotten by her many friends.

Therefore, we, the Hurkaru staff, and especially the class of '62, wish to dedicate the 1962 yearbook to our friend and classmate

MARY ANN McCLURE

TO MARY ANN

Across the eastern sky, while the morning chill
And a few sparklets of dew lingered for a fleeting moment;
A tint of gold, in the first modest flushes of the dawn,
Began to glow and to grow until the sun rose from beneath
The horizon and flooded our little corner of the world
With warmth and sunshine. Another day had dawned.
The sun's light chased away the shadows of the vanishing night,
Brightening every dark corner and shadowy room.
Climbing higher, the sun christened our noon
With a ray of gold. Springing from the south,
A soft, warm breeze aroused gay laughter in the
Rustling leaves and gently swayed the silent trees.
The day slipped by, all bathed in the warmth
And light of the sun. Then, near the end
We suddenly realized the day was almost gone
And wished we had not idly spent a precious moment.
But now, even after the sun has set,
Its light remains, reflected on the sky--
A golden memory of the day gone by.

Principal Musick

Completing his second year as principal of Concordia High School, Mr. Donald Musick is well liked and respected by everyone. Mr. Musick received his B.S. degree at Bethany and his M.S. degree at Kansas State Teachers' College at Emporia. Before coming to Concordia, he taught science and art and coached at Clifton. Mr. Musick also taught at Hillsboro and Scott City. He was principal at Clifton and Montezuma and superintendent at Bloom, Kansas.

MR. DONALD MUSICK

Mr. James Post is completing his third year as principal of the Concordia Junior High School and his thirteenth year in the Concordia Public Schools. He graduated from Pittsburg State College and received his master's degree at the University of Kansas. Before coming to Concordia, Mr. Post taught in Missouri and southeastern Kansas.

Board of Education

BOARD OF EDUCATION: Richard Matthew, Boyd Lewis, Martha Fyfe, Charles Everitt, Harold Clark, E. W. Larson, Celeste McComas, and Larry Peck.

The tremendous job of making our school policies goes to the Board of Education. This year's officers are Charles Everitt, president; E. W. Larson, vice-president; Martha Fyfe, clerk; and Mrs. John Scott, treasurer. These members are elected by the townspeople for a term of four years. They give freely of their time and talents, working with the superintendent to form policies which the administration puts into effect.

Cooks, Custodians, and Bus Drivers

Cafeteria service under the direction of Mrs. Laman and her assistants is provided for from September to May at CHS. Many use and enjoy the cafeteria.

Mrs. Laman, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Wright, and Mrs. Wheeler

Our school is kept in "tip top" condition by our able custodians. In addition to maintaining the building--their primary job--they are also helpful to students and teachers in setting the stage for assemblies and repairing whatever needs fixing.

Mr. Lefort, Mr. Kearns, Mr. Collins, Mr. Scott, and Mr. Peterson.

Mr. Appleby and Mr. Kearns.

Our two busses and drivers at CHS are always ready to take a load of students to a science fair, an exchange assembly, or ball game. Patience must be their password, for anyone who has taken a trip on one of our busses knows that our drivers have to listen to.

Laughing, loving and learning, the Class of 1962 started up the first step of their high school days as freshmen. They chose to follow Rex Caywood as president; John Peck, vice-president; and Joyce St. Pierre, secretary-treasurer. Sponsors that year were Mr. Simmons, Mr. Leon, Miss Scott, and Mr. Humphrey.

The class took the next step as sophomores choosing as their leaders Nita Culley, president; John Peck, vice-president; Mary Ann McClure, secretary; and Marvin Rogers, treasurer. Advisors for the year were Miss Johnson, Mr. Betts, Mr. Brandhorst, and Mr. Rawson.

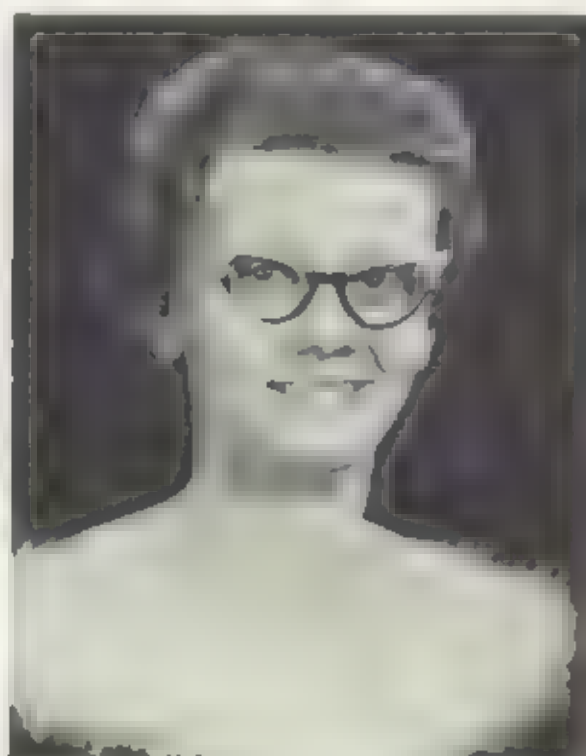

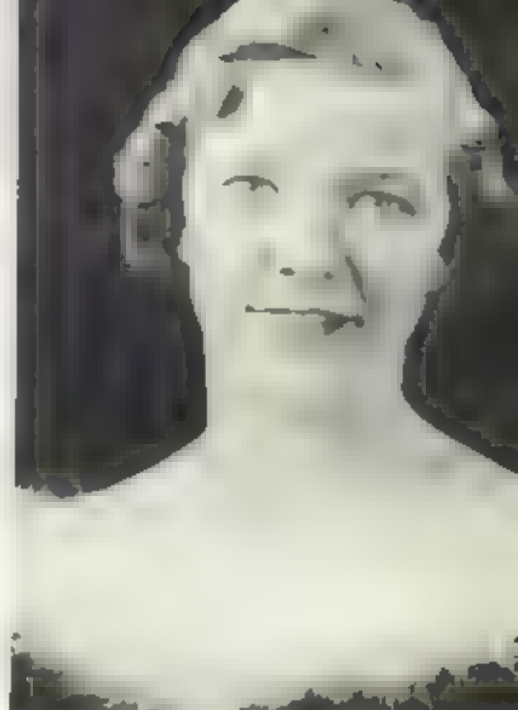

With great enthusiasm the Class of '62 took the next step as juniors. Heading the class were John Peck, president; Barbara Baker, vice-president; Verlyn Beale, secretary and Kenneth Switzer, treasurer. Sponsors were Miss Dwerlkotte, Miss Meyer, Mr. Post and Mr. Tubach. Highlights of the year were the all-school party, the play "Hillbill Weddin'," and the Junior-Senior Prom "Fiesta."

Conquering the final step of the ladder of high school days, the class chose Rex Caywood, president; Paul Monty, vice-president; Barbara Baker, secretary; and Marvin Rogers, treasurer. Class sponsors were Mr. Bryant, Miss Fletcher, and Mr. Randall. Main features of the year were the Senior play "Heaven Can Wait," the Senior Banquet and graduation. The class presented the school a stone bulletin board in memory of their classmates Mary Ann McClure and Mari Lynn Vietz.

In the fall of 1959 the doors of Concordia High School opened to welcome the class of '63. The class elected Steve Pickard, president; John Culley, vice-president, and Bill Young, secretary-treasurer. Their sponsors were Miss Scott, Mr. Humphrey, Mr. Leon, and Mr. Simmons. They voted to have one party which was a box supper and a dance held in the gymnasium.

Officers elected by the class for their sophomore year were Jim Bourne, president; Bill Young, vice-president; Richard Dutton, secretary-treasurer. Their helpful sponsors were Mr. Betts, Mrs. Johnson, and Mr. Brandhorst. The class sponsored a hayrack ride.

As juniors the class of '63 elected Richard Morgan, president; John Culley, vice-president; Jolene Cowell, secretary; Loretta Wallace, treasurer. Their sponsors were Miss Dwerlkotte, Miss Johnson, Mr. Burnell and Mr. Post. The class sold football and basketball pencils, sponsored an all-school party, "Ozark Jubilee", and presented the play "Annie Get Your Gun". They also held a lovely Junior-Senior Prom "South Pacific".

Distributive Education is that phase of our vocational program designed to offer instruction and training to students interested in careers in retailing, wholesaling, and service business.

The students spend the morning in class instruction and the afternoons in "laboratory" training at various business stations in town.

This on-the-job experience together with required senior courses complete the student's program for graduation to full-time employment or entrance into schools of higher learning.

The Peppermint Prom

Mrs. Clark and Mr. VanKooten enjoy doin' the Twist!

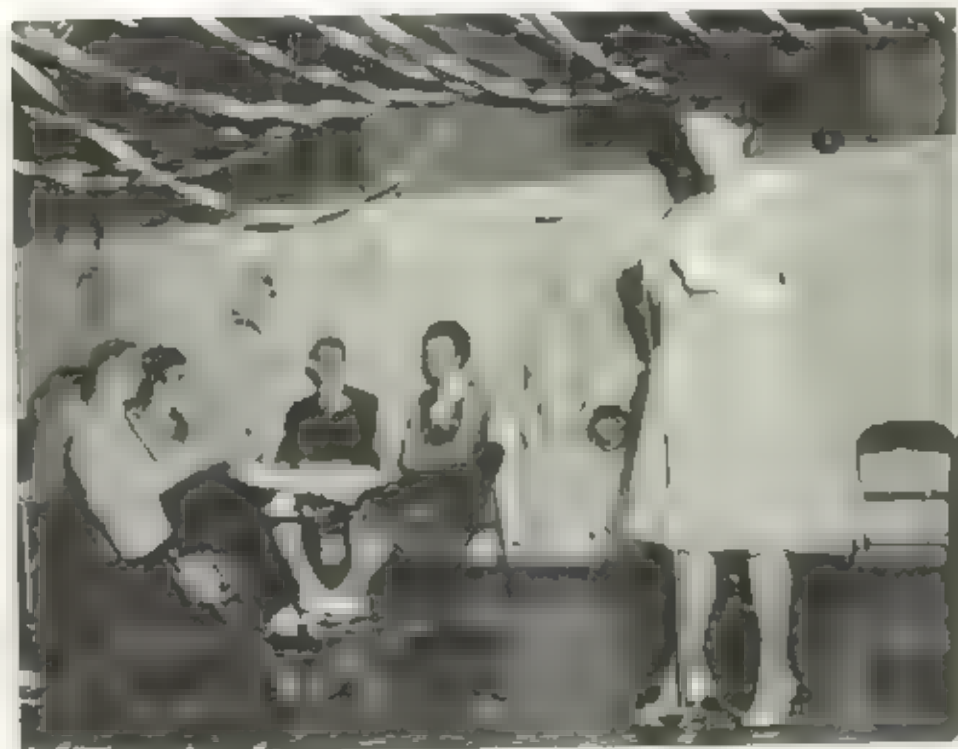

Relda adds the finishing touches to King Eddie's crowning.

Pep King, Ed Walters, and his attendants.

And they do the Hokey Pokey!

Janet Thomson entertained with a reading.

Classroom Snaps

Mr. Betts' economics class enjoys studying with the new desks this year.

Mr. Bryant and Mr. VanKooten help Alan Johnson and Wayne Christenson decide on next year's schedule.

The English 12 class seems hypnotized by what Miss Fletcher is telling them.

Students in Mr. Tubach's Spanish classes really enjoy the new Spanish laboratory.

Miss Peck gives typing students many drills while teaching them to type.

All is peaceful and quiet in the library while everyone studies.

In Memory

Someone has been missing from C.H.S. these last two months of school. The lively personality of Mari Lynn Veitz who died March 30, 1962, is gone.

Mari Lynn spent most of her school years in Concordia and was very active in her school and community.

"Mickie", as she was known to her family and many friends, will never be forgotten. All will remember her ready smile and constant laughter, her incessant energy for fun.
